

AJAX:

#. AJAX Stands for Asynchronous JavaScript and XML ,and it's a collection of technologies that makes web application more responsive to user interaction.

#. An AJAX call is a web development technique that allows a website to update part of it's content without reloading the entire page.

WebTable

#. In Case of Web Table always <table> tag will be present inside DOM.

#. table data will be stored inside tbody tag.

#. <th> represents table head

#. <tr> represents table row

#. <td> represents table columns